Sir Walter Murdoch School of Public Policy and International Affairs invites you to a talk with

His Excellency Mr Paul Madden CMG
British High Commissioner
‘Australia and Britain in the Asian century’

Paul Madden has been British High Commissioner to Australia since January 2011. Prior to this he was British High Commissioner in Singapore from February 2007.

A career diplomat, he was previously Managing Director at UK Trade and Investment (2004-2006), responsible for co-ordinating and implementing international trade development strategies to support companies across a wide range of business sectors.

As Assistant Director of Information at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (2003-2004) he was responsible for public diplomacy policy, including managing the FCO funding of the BBC World Service, the British Council and the Chevening Scholarships programme. He led the team responsible for the award-winning UK pavilion at the Aichi Expo in Japan 2005.

Chair

Professor Benjamin Reilly
School Dean
Sir Walter Murdoch School of Public Policy and International Affairs

Wednesday 7 May 2014
Senate Conference Room, Level 2.002
2.00pm to 3.00pm
Light refreshments provided
Please RSVP jade.lim@murdoch.edu.au