About the test

The Special Tertiary Admissions Test is one of the means by which adults can gain admission to university. Applicants for the mid 2013 intake must be at least 20 years of age before 1 August 2013. For admission to university in 2014 applicants must be at least 20 years of age before 1 March 2014. The Tertiary Institutions Service Centre (TISC) conducts the Special Tertiary Admissions Test on behalf of WA Universities on selected dates from May 2013. Interested persons should contact TISC on 9318 8000 for an application form. It is compulsory to take both a written English test (STAT Written English) and a verbal and quantitative multiple choice test (STAT F).

Please note

You are allocated to the next available testing session following acceptance of your application unless you list a session preference on the TISC STAT Booking Form.

Student comments

Feedback from previous Preparation Course students has been very favourable and includes comments such as:
- Provided me with a sound approach to planning and writing a worthy essay in the time given.
- I found the preparation course both relaxed and informative. Well worth the effort.
- We were taught a simple and an effective format in a short time which spelt success.
- The preparation course was a wonderful help. I was thrilled with my results.
- The evening on essay writing was of invaluable help. The teacher was very clear on what was required and inspired a great deal of confidence.
- After the preparation course I went from absolute lack of confidence and uncertainty to confident that I should pass if I got myself organised.
- The numeracy course was brilliant. It was crucial to me passing my STAT.
- I learnt critical thinking, essay preparation and mind-mapping skills that were invaluable.

About the Preparation Course

Murdoch University’s Preparation Course is tailored to meet the needs of adults who may not have studied for many years. Classes are run by highly skilled and friendly staff. The aim of the course is to enable participants to approach the Special Tertiary Admissions Test with confidence, through knowledge of test procedures and examination techniques. The course will assist participants to build and practise essay writing skills, and interpret and analyse both verbal and quantitative multiple choice questions.

The preparation course is divided into three parts and covers the following:

Part 1 (Written English)
Information on tertiary entrance requirements: addresses surviving test traumas, examination techniques, analysing questions, essay writing skills, examination practice.

Part 2 (Multiple Choice)
Understanding the question: addresses verbal multiple choice questions including examination techniques, sample questions and practice.

Part 3 (Multiple Choice)
Understanding the question: addresses quantitative multiple choice questions including examination techniques, sample questions and practice.
