

Music & Copyright

Using music in Lectopia and other University activities

according to the terms of this licence, can I ...	yes/no	should I check the repertoire ¹ ?	are there marking requirements?
1 play ©music from a purchased cd/record/tape in a lecture or tutorial?	yes	no	no
2 copy ©music from a 'legitimate source' ² onto e.g. a cd and distribute copies to students for an educational purpose?	yes - charging no more than a cost recovery fee	yes	TML notice
3 download ©music from the internet to play in lectures etc?	no - not even from a legitimate commercial supplier	n/a	n/a
4 format shift ©music to play in lecture? e.g. create a compilation on cd or PowerPoint of tracks and/or extracts of ©music from 'legitimate sources'	yes	yes	TML notice n.b: if lecture is recorded in Lectopia details of the music must be logged in the copyright section of the staff tool
5 copy a ©music video?	no ³	n/a	n/a
6 record a lecture in which ©music/sound recordings are played? e.g. using Lectopia, or another recording format	yes	yes	TML notice details must be logged in copyright section of Lectopia staff tool

¹ The 'repertoire' is a list of the members of the Music Societies that have signed the TML with the Universities.

² A 'legitimate source' excludes any item downloaded from the internet – even if purchased from a legitimate commercial site; or any infringing copy of a recording.

³ You may, however, record a broadcast of a music video for educational purposes under our ScreenRights licence: see information at <http://www.murdoch.edu.au/copyright/>.

7 copy a recorded lecture which includes ©music onto cd and distribute it to students?	yes - at no more than a cost recovery fee	yes	TML notice
8 email copies of recorded lecture which contains ©music to students?	no	n/a	n/a
9 provide a recorded lecture containing ©music via LMS?	no	n/a	n/a
10 deliver Lectopia recordings that include ©music?	yes	yes	TML notice + log © details in staff-tool
11 archive a recorded lecture containing ©music?	yes	n/a	[notice should already be attached]
12 stream ©music for students to listen to via ECMS?	yes [service not currently available]	yes	referencing details to be submitted with music file; notice will be attached by Library
13 send students a ©music file via email?	no	n/a	n/a
14 provide students with a ©music file via WebCT?	no	n/a	n/a
15 make videos containing ©music as part of a course of instruction?	yes - students may also do this as part of a course of study	yes	TML notice
16 play or perform ©music at a University event?	yes - students may also play or perform - no fee for entrance may be charged in either case	yes	n/a

17 play or perform © music on University premises as an outside entity?	no	n/a	n/a
18 video a University Event at which ©music is performed or played?	yes - students may also do this as part of a course of study	n/a	TML notice
19 synchronise ©music with a video of a University Event and make copies?	yes - students may also do this as part of a course of study	yes	TML notice
20 distribute videos such as at 18 and 19 to University staff and students, and their immediate families, for private or domestic purposes?	yes - at no more than a cost recovery fee; and containing no advertising material	n/a	TML notice
21 submit an item such as at 18 and 19 to a University archive?	yes	n/a	TML notice
22 perform ©music as part of a course of study or at a University event? ⁴	yes - students may also do this as part of a course of study	yes
23 broadcast a ©musical work or sound recording?	no	n/a	n/a
24 reproduce © print or sheet music? ⁵	no	n/a	n/a

For more information please go to

MUSIC & COPYRIGHT – the Tertiary Music Licence or contact the Copyright Coordinator by phone: (08) 9360 7491 or by email:

copyright@murdoch.edu.au

⁴ But not a Grand Right Work or excerpts; or musical works and associated words composed for a ballet if that performance is accompanied by a visual representation of that ballet or excerpts of that ballet; or a Choral Work of more than 20 minutes duration, or excerpts; or a musical work, or excerpts, performed in a dramatic context.

⁵ 10% of a sheet music work may be copied under the terms of our Licence with the Copyright Agency Limited (CAL).