5 October, 2007

PROFESSOR APPOINTED TO NADRAC

Attorney-General Philip Ruddock today announced the appointment of Professor Nadja Alexander to the National Alternative Dispute Resolution Advisory Council (NADRAC).

“I am delighted to announce the appointment of Professor Alexander to this important council,” Mr Ruddock said.

“Professor Alexander is a highly qualified academic from the University of Queensland whose work in the field of alternative dispute resolution is well known in Australia and internationally.

“She has extensive experience as a trainer, facilitator and dispute resolution consultant in Australia, Europe, USA and the Asia/Pacific region.”

During her career, Professor Alexander has authored many books and articles on negotiation and mediation in both English and German.

She is editor of the international book series Global Trends in Mediation, which is currently being translated into Italian.

She is on the editorial boards of a number of prominent ADR journals in Australia and overseas.

Mr Ruddock also announced the reappointment of Ms Josephine Akee AM, Mr Fabian Dixon SC, Mr Ian Hanger AM QC, Dr Gaye Sculthorpe and Mr Greg Hansen to NADRAC.

Media Contact: Sarah Stock 0419 278 715