Dubai – where East meets West:
Reflections on international education
from the perspective of expatriate teachers in the UAE.

Claire Macrae has been teaching and co-ordinating the Murdoch Master of Education (Coursework) programme in Dubai for the past five years. She has taught many of the units in the MEd Coursework programme, including units on technology, international education, cultural diversity, mentoring and curriculum design. In this seminar Claire will discuss the unique characteristics of the current educational context in Dubai. Various challenges and opportunities for teachers and students will be discussed. She will also highlight the unique contribution Murdoch Dubai has to offer our work in this Transnational Education (TNE) space.
