Student comments

Feedback from previous Preparation Course students has been very favourable and includes comments such as:

- Provided me with a sound approach to planning and writing a worthy essay in the time given.
- I found the preparation course both relaxed and informative. Well worth the effort.
- We were taught a simple and an effective format in a short time which spelt success.
- The preparation course was a wonderful help. I was thrilled with my results.
- The evening on essay writing was of invaluable help. The teacher was very clear on what was required and inspired a great deal of confidence.
- After the preparation course I went from absolute lack of confidence and uncertainty to confident that I should pass if I got myself organised.
- The numeracy was brilliant. It was crucial to me passing my STAT.
- I learnt critical thinking, essay preparation and mind-mapping skills that were invaluable.

About the Preparation Course

Murdoch University's Preparation Course is tailored to meet the needs of adults who may not have studied for many years. Classes are run by highly skilled and friendly staff. The aim of the course is to enable participants to approach the Special Tertiary Admissions Test with confidence, through knowledge of test procedures and examination techniques. The course will assist participants to build and practice essay writing skills, and interpret and analyse both verbal and quantitative multiple choice questions.

The preparation course is divided into three parts and covers the following:

Part 1 (Written English)

Information on tertiary entrance requirements: addresses surviving test traumas, examination techniques, analysing questions, essay writing skills, examination practice.

Part 2 (Multiple Choice)

Understanding the question: addresses verbal and quantitative multiple choice questions and includes examination techniques, sample questions and practice.

Part 3 (Practice Test)

Being test-wise requires familiarity with the test environment. This will give you the opportunity to trial the techniques learned in parts 1 and 2. The practice multiple choice questions will be done under test conditions, followed by a thorough debrief of both the experience and the answers.

What to do next

Once you have enrolled online we will email you a confirmation letter and map indicating the location of the venue.

Cancellations up to five (5) days prior to a course will attract a $10.00 administration charge. No refunds will be given thereafter, except under special circumstances.
