

RESEARCH TRAINING SCHEME
 PREVIOUS CANDIDATURE DECLARATION

Under the conditions of the Federal Government Research Training Scheme (RTS), students transferring from another institution will be required to declare their enrolment period from their previous institution.

Under the conditions of the RTS, research students will have an absolute maximum of 2 years for an MPhil or Research Masters and an absolute maximum of 4 years to complete a Doctorate. Any previous candidature at another institution is to be deducted from the 2 or 4 years. Each student's maximum period of entitlement is calculated from the actual course commencement date at the previous institution. In calculating candidature, full and part-time periods of enrolment and any suspension will be taken into account

All students who have had a research enrolment at another institution within the last three years MUST complete this form
