Who can submit this application?

You can submit this form if you are:

- A current undergraduate Murdoch student in the Bachelor of Science in Medical, Molecular or Forensic Science (B1317 or B1380) and you would like to progress into the Bachelor of Laboratory Medicine.

You cannot submit this form if you are:

- Not currently enrolled in a Murdoch undergraduate Bachelor of Science in Medical, Molecular or Forensic Science course. Please apply via MyAdmissions

Are there any entry requirements?

To progress to Laboratory Medicine you must have completed the first 5 semesters of the B. Sci (B1380 or B1317) with a double major in Clinical Laboratory Science plus Biomedical Science or Molecular Biology or Forensic Biology & Toxicology with a GPA > 2.0. You must also have been approved to undertake Work Integrated Learning Placements by the Laboratory Medicine Academic Chair.

If you are a student visa holder, you will be asked to complete an International Study Plan with your new Academic Chair and supply proof of your OSHC before a new Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) is issued. See Terms and Conditions for details.

Applications received will be processed for Semester 1 entry only. No mid-year entry is available for Lab Med.

When should this application be submitted by?

You will need to submit your application by the start-of-year processing deadline to be transferred for semester 1. See the Changing your course or major page for the deadlines.

How do I submit this application?

Read the full terms and conditions and complete the details on page 2. Save a copy of the document and send it to studentcentre@murdoch.edu.au or lodge it via MyAnswers.

Term and Conditions

- Course, major, co-major and minor combinations for your chosen course are available as per the current Handbook. Your nominated combination must not exceed the total credit points for the course or exceed the maximum allowable combination as per the current Coursework Regulations.
- Unless specified by the Academic Chair, you will be transferred to the current version of the course or major you have requested as per the Handbook.
- All completed units (passed and failed) will be transferred over to the new course as Duplicate units. They will impact the GPA and Completion Rate for your new course.
- By applying for a course transfer you are acknowledging you understand that the change may:
 - increase your course duration and therefore any related fees.
 - affect your Centrelink benefits, sponsorship or scholarship eligibility, or student visa duration.
 - change the amount of advanced standing awarded to you.
- Applications received after the processing deadline will not be actioned until the next processing window.

For Domestic Students:

- Commonwealth Supported Place students are required to complete a new Commonwealth Assistance Form once the course transfer has been processed. This must be completed before the Census Date or your course will be cancelled.
- If you are deferring your Student Services and Amenities Fees (SSAF) to an SA-HELP loan you will need to complete the form again under your new course before the Census Date. SA-HELP forms are not automatically transferred to your new course.

- By opting to change course you acknowledge that your Commonwealth Supported fee rate will change to the current fee rate (at time of processing) as per Federal Government legislation.
- Domestic Students will be required to pass at least 50% of units attempted under their current course to maintain access to any Commonwealth Support under the Government's Job Ready Graduate Package. More information on the requirement can be found here.

For Student Visa Holders:

- After you have applied, and if you are approved, you will be sent an International Study Plan form to complete with your new Academic Chair. This will be used to determine the duration of your new course. Your application will not be processed until a completed International Study Plan has been submitted and you provide proof of OSHC for the duration of the plan.
- You will be issued a new CoE with a different CRICOS code if your application is approved. This will be issued to you by the International Admissions team before the transfer is processed. No action is required by you.
- By opting to change course you acknowledge that your fee rate will change to the current year's course fee rate (at time of processing).
