Course Detail:

This is an enabling program which will provide the completing student a selection rank of 70 at Murdoch University. Places in this course are limited and students identified as not engaging in course content may have their unit enrollments cancelled. Students will be required to purchase an official academic transcript on completion, should they require one. This course cannot be credited toward any subsequent degree or studies at Murdoch University.

Students under 20 years of age may be required to attend a prearranged face-to-face Readiness Evaluation session at the Murdoch South Street campus if they are unable to provide supporting documentation.

Please sign below to acknowledge that you have read and understood these terms and conditions, and provided all required supporting documentation required for your applications assessment.
